

Positive Behaviour Audit

Do you have?	Yes	No	Could be improved
A reflective and knowledgeable staff
Access to training on behaviour issues
A staff team who work with each other for a consistent approach
A staff team who work with parents for a consistent approach
A key person system which is supported by the setting's organisation
A clear behaviour policy
Clear boundaries and rules
Routines which have flexibility when needed
A physical environment conducive to positive behaviour
Planning and differentiation for SEN
Sufficient and stimulating resources for a range of needs and abilities
Sufficient and stimulating activities for a range of needs and abilities
Opportunities for children to make choices and experience independence
Adults who acknowledge and discuss feelings and emotions			